Boston, MA (April 10, 2008) – ProMutual Group, one of the leading providers of medical liability insurance in the Northeast, is pleased to announce that Karen T. Civali, R.N., has joined its risk management department. As a risk management representative, Civali brings more than 30 years of experience to one of the Northeast's largest risk management field staff.

"Karen has a wealth of experience and knowledge and will take a prominent role assisting physicians to identify and minimize risk exposures in our Connecticut and New Jersey territories," said Anne Huben-Kearney, manager of clinical risk for ProMutual Group.

Like all of ProMutual Group's risk management field staff, Civali's primary background is as a registered nurse. She served at the Veterans Memorial Medical Center for 16 years in critical care units. Additionally, Civali has held numerous positions within the scope of the insurance and healthcare industry including director of review services at Health Care Directions/PROCIS, Inc., of East Berlin, Connecticut, and as the employee health services coordinator for Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Connecticut. Before coming to ProMutual Group, Civali was a senior risk manager with a medical liability insurance company in Connecticut.

"I am excited to work with a company of this caliber and expand my involvement with healthcare providers from a risk management perspective," said Civali. "From what I have seen, ProMutual Group provides exceptional services to its policyholders. I am looking forward to being a part of that."

Civali is a member of the Connecticut Medical Group Managers Association, Connecticut Society of Healthcare Risk Managers and the Connecticut Association for Healthcare Quality. She is frequently requested as a speaker at various medical association symposiums and conferences.
