Boston, MA – On Friday, October 6, 2006, ProMutual Group donated $5,000 to the Rhode Island Medical Society in support of its Physician Health Program.

The Physician Health Program was created to serve the professional communities of physicians, dentists, podiatrists, and physician assistants in Rhode Island with prevention and treatment of behavioral and mental health concerns such as substance abuse disorders.

ProMutual Group and the Rhode Island Medical Society strongly believe in improving public health through education and advocacy.

After making the donation president and CEO Richard Brewer said, “ProMutual Group is committed to giving back to the community and the industry we serve. We focus the majority of our outreach on programs centered on the needs of the healthcare community.”
